

Diabetes is one of the most common chronic health conditions in the UK affecting at least 1 in 10 of all ages.

Because of their acute sense of smell our dogs are trained to detect both hypoglycaemia (low blood sugar) and hyperglycaemia (high blood sugar). They can warn their owners and get help even before symptoms of these conditions are felt.

www.medicaldetectiondogs.org.uk

Telephone: 01296 655888

Registered Charity No.1124533

Dogs saving lives